

Ken Sanginario

CVGA, CM&AA, CTP, CPA/ABV, MST, MSF

Ken Sanginario is the Founder of Corporate Value Metrics, creator of the Value Opportunity Profile® (“VOP®”), and developer of the Certified Value Growth Advisor® (“CVGA®”) program. The VOP has been recognized by several global media companies as the best software platform for facilitating the creation of value in private companies.

Ken has more than 35 years of experience providing executive leadership and strategic advisory services to private middle market companies, developing and executing business improvement initiatives, turning around distressed operations, managing M&A transactions, valuing companies, and securing growth capital.

He has extensive experience as an instructor in the training and certification programs of the Alliance of M&A Advisors and the Exit Planning Institute. He has also served on the advisory board of the MidMarket Alliance as its educational leader, and on the Boards of Advisors of several privately held companies.

Ken is a frequent speaker at national and regional conferences and private business owner functions, has authored numerous articles on business value creation and has contributed to a variety of published books by industry experts. He was also the Board President for three years of Solutions at Work, a charitable organization focused on breaking the cycle of recurring poverty and homelessness.
